DILUTION

Meaning: Dilution refers to the process of reducing the concentration of a substance in a solution or the decrease in ownership percentage of existing shareholders when new shares are issued by a company.

1. The dilution of the solution was necessary to achieve the desired concentration.
2. In the context of investments, dilution can occur when a company issues new shares.
3. The scientist carefully measured the dilution of the acid to ensure accurate results.
4. Excessive dilution of the brand can lead to a loss of consumer trust and loyalty.
5. During the experiment, the team noted that the dilution affected the reaction rates significantly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dilution