

DIM

Meaning: Dim (adjective): characterized by a low level of brightness or clarity; not well-lit or faint.

1. The dim light in the room created a cozy atmosphere for reading.
2. She squinted her eyes as she tried to make out the dim figure in the distance.
3. His enthusiasm for the project dimmed after facing several setbacks.
4. As the sun began to set, the sky turned a beautiful shade of dim orange.
5. The old photograph was so faded that the details had become almost dim and unrecognizable.
6. The room was dimly lit, creating an intimate atmosphere for the dinner party.
7. As the sun began to set, the sky transformed from bright blue to a soft, dim hue.
8. Her smile was faint but warm, like the dim glow of a candle in the dark.
9. He squinted in the dim light, trying to read the faded inscription on the old book.
10. Despite the dim conditions, the artist skillfully captured the essence of the scene on canvas.
11. The room was dimly lit, creating an atmosphere of mystery and intrigue.
12. She squinted at the dim light, struggling to read the fine print on the page.
13. His enthusiasm seemed to dim after receiving the disappointing news.
14. As the sun set, the landscape took on a dim hue, painting the sky in muted colors.
15. The dim glow of the candle flickered against the walls, casting dancing shadows.