

DIMINUENDO

Meaning: Diminuendo is a gradual decrease in loudness or intensity in music or sound.

1. The symphony concluded with a beautiful diminuendo, leaving the audience in a reflective silence.
2. As the lights in the theater dimmed, the music faded into a soft diminuendo that heightened the emotional impact of the scene.
3. The singer's voice transitioned into a gentle diminuendo, capturing the essence of longing in her performance.
4. The sound of the waves gradually diminished into a calm diminuendo, creating a perfect backdrop for the sunset.
5. In the final movement of the concerto, the orchestra executed a flawless diminuendo that evoked a sense of peace and closure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diminuendo>