

DIMINUENT

Meaning: Diminuent: characterized by a gradual decrease in intensity or volume.

1. The diminuent notes in the symphony created a haunting atmosphere.
2. As the sun set, the light gradually became more diminuent, casting long shadows across the landscape.
3. Her voice was a diminuent whisper, barely audible over the rustling leaves.
4. The artist used diminuent colors in the painting to evoke a sense of melancholy.
5. In the debate, his arguments were strong at first but eventually became more diminuent as he lost confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diminuent>