

DIMISSION

Meaning: Dimission: the formal resignation or relinquishment of a position or office.

1. The board accepted his dimission with a mixture of surprise and relief.
2. After much contemplation, she finally submitted her dimission from the committee.
3. His unexpected dimission sparked rumors about the company's future direction.
4. The dimission of the long-serving director left a significant gap in leadership.
5. Following his dimission, the team rallied together to fill the void left behind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dimission>