

DIMORPHOUS

Meaning: Dimorphous refers to having two distinct forms or types, often seen in characteristics such as color, shape, or structure within the same species.

1. The dimorphous characteristics of the butterfly's wings make it a fascinating subject for study.
2. In some species of plants, dimorphous flowers can attract different types of pollinators.
3. The dimorphous nature of the crystals can lead to varied properties depending on their formation.
4. Scientists were intrigued by the dimorphous traits exhibited by the species in their natural habitat.
5. Her art often reflects a dimorphous style, blending realism with abstract elements.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dimorphous>