

DIMPLE

Meaning: A dimple is a small, natural indentation or depression in the flesh, often found on the cheeks or chin, that becomes more pronounced when a person smiles.

1. Her smile was charming, especially when the dimple on her cheek appeared.
2. He had a small dimple in his chin that made him look endearing.
3. The child giggled, revealing a dimple that deepened with each laugh.
4. She always noticed how his dimple would deepen when he was amused.
5. The photograph captured her joyful expression, highlighting the dimple on her left cheek.
6. She smiled, revealing a charming dimple on her left cheek.
7. The child's dimple deepened as he laughed at the silly joke.
8. He had a dimple that made him look even more boyish and playful.
9. Her dimple appeared whenever she tried to suppress a smile during serious conversations.
10. With a playful wink, he highlighted the dimple that had always captivated her attention.
11. The baby giggled, and a delightful dimple appeared on his face.
12. He had a deep dimple that made his grin even more infectious.
13. As she laughed, her dimples deepened, adding to her beauty.
14. The artist captured the subtle dimple in her portrait flawlessly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dimple>