

DINER-OUT

Meaning: Diner-out (noun): a person who frequently eats at restaurants rather than at home.

1. The couple decided to become regular diner-outs, exploring new restaurants every weekend.
2. After a long week, he loved being a diner-out at his favorite burger joint.
3. Being a diner-out in a vibrant city means discovering hidden culinary gems.
4. She often shared her experiences as a diner-out on her popular food blog.
5. The local diner welcomed diner-outs with open arms and a hearty menu.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diner-out>