

DINGDONG

Meaning: DINGDONG: a sound produced by a bell, often used to indicate an event such as a doorbell ringing or the striking of a clock.

1. The doorbell rang with a cheerful dingdong, announcing the arrival of guests.
2. As soon as the clock struck midnight, it let out a loud dingdong that echoed through the quiet streets.
3. She laughed when the children's game ended with a playful dingdong that signaled the winner.
4. The old church bell chimed a melodious dingdong, filling the air with a sense of peace.
5. His phone buzzed with a notification, making a quick dingdong sound that interrupted the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dingdong>