

DINT

Meaning: DINT (noun): a means or method of achieving something; also, a dent or depression caused by a forceful impact.

1. She succeeded in her career by dint of hard work and perseverance.
2. The car was dented by the force of the impact, leaving a noticeable mark.
3. By dint of sheer determination, he managed to overcome all obstacles.
4. The policy was changed by dint of public pressure and advocacy.
5. He was invited to the exclusive event by dint of his recent achievements.
6. She succeeded by dint of hard work and perseverance.
7. The old car had a noticeable dint on the passenger door.
8. By dint of sheer luck, they found the lost treasure hidden in the cave.
9. The project moved forward by dint of collaborative effort from the entire team.
10. He achieved his goals not by chance, but by dint of careful planning and execution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dint>