

DIOPTRIC

Meaning: DIOPTRIC: relating to the measurement of the refractive power of lenses in optics, particularly in their ability to focus light.

1. The dioptric power of a lens determines how effectively it can focus light.
2. In optics, dioptric measurements are essential for creating precise corrective eyewear.
3. The scientist explained the dioptric principles behind the formation of rainbows.
4. Adjusting the dioptric settings on the microscope improved the clarity of the images.
5. Her understanding of dioptric systems helped her design better optical devices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dioptric>