

DIORITIC

Meaning: Dioritic refers to a type of igneous rock that is characterized by a composition predominantly of plagioclase feldspar and lesser amounts of other minerals, indicating a specific geological formation and history.

1. The dioritic composition of the rock indicated a complex geological history.
2. In the laboratory, the geologist examined a dioritic sample to understand its mineral content.
3. The mountains were primarily made up of dioritic formations, giving them a unique texture.
4. During the hike, we encountered several dioritic outcrops that showcased the area's volcanic past.
5. Dioritic textures in the mineral deposits suggested significant pressure during their formation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dioritic>