

DIPHTherITIC

Meaning: Diphtheritic refers to a condition or infection related to diphtheria, characterized by the presence of lesions and potentially severe complications.

1. The doctor explained that the patient was suffering from a diphtheritic infection, which required immediate treatment.
2. Diphtheritic lesions can cause severe complications if left untreated for too long.
3. Historically, diphtheritic outbreaks were common in crowded urban areas lacking proper sanitation.
4. The vaccine has significantly reduced the incidence of diphtheritic diseases among children.
5. Symptoms of a diphtheritic throat infection include a sore throat, fever, and a characteristic membrane formation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diphtheritic>