

DIPRISMATIC

Meaning: Diprismatic refers to a design or technique that utilizes multiple prisms to create dynamic effects of light and color, enhancing visual experiences through reflections and refractions.

1. The diprismatic design of the building allowed for a unique play of light and shadow throughout the day.
2. Her artistic vision was enhanced by the diprismatic technique, creating vivid reflections in her paintings.
3. Scientists were intrigued by the diprismatic properties of the crystal, which refracted light in unexpected patterns.
4. The diprismatic approach in the new sculpture provided a dynamic viewing experience from different angles.
5. In photography, utilizing diprismatic filters can dramatically alter the mood and depth of an image.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diprismatic>