

DIPTERAL

Meaning: Dipteral refers to a classical architectural design featuring a double row of columns on all sides of a building.

1. The dipteral design of the ancient temple allowed for a unique architectural aesthetic.
2. In classical architecture, a dipteral colonnade features columns on both sides of the building.
3. Scholars often debate the significance of dipteral layouts in ancient Greek temples.
4. The dipteral structure provided a sense of grandeur and symmetry to the sacred space.
5. Visitors were awed by the dipteral arrangement, which enhanced the temple's majesty.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dipteral>