

DIRECTORSHIP

Meaning: Directorship refers to the position or role of a director in an organization or institution, involving leadership and decision-making responsibilities.

1. Her directorship at the nonprofit organization brought significant changes to its community outreach programs.
2. After years of hard work, he was finally appointed to a directorship in the prestigious film studio.
3. The board of directors evaluated several candidates for the directorship before making their final decision.
4. She faced numerous challenges during her directorship, but her leadership ultimately strengthened the team.
5. His directorship was marked by innovative strategies that transformed the company's approach to marketing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/directorship>