

DIREPTION

Meaning: Direption refers to a sudden or forceful disruption or interruption, often causing chaos or confusion.

1. The sudden direption of the ship caused panic among the crew and passengers alike.
2. In the midst of the political debate, the direption of the opposing party's arguments was evident.
3. Her direption from the usual path led to unexpected discoveries in the forest.
4. The direption of resources during the crisis left many communities struggling to survive.
5. His direption from traditional methods in the lab resulted in groundbreaking findings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/direption>