

DIRIMENT

Meaning: Diriment refers to factors or issues that are decisive or conclusive, particularly in determining the validity or outcome of a situation or agreement.

1. The diriment factors in their relationship ultimately led to a mutual decision to part ways.
2. The legal team identified several diriment issues that could invalidate the contract if not addressed.
3. In some cultures, diriment impediments to marriage include factors such as age or familial consent.
4. She felt that the diriment circumstances surrounding their partnership were too significant to ignore.
5. Understanding the diriment elements of the agreement was crucial for both parties involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diriment>