

DIRKNESS

Meaning: Dirkness: a state of deep darkness or obscurity, often associated with a lack of visibility and a foreboding atmosphere.

1. The dirkness of the cave made it difficult to see even a few inches ahead.
2. As night fell, the dirkness enveloped the forest, creating an eerie atmosphere.
3. He felt a sense of unease in the dirkness, as if unseen eyes were watching him.
4. The dirkness seemed to thicken around her, amplifying the sounds of her footsteps.
5. In the dirkness of the alley, shadows danced as the streetlights flickered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dirkness>