

DIS

Meaning: To speak disrespectfully or disparagingly about someone or something.

1. Dis my favorite band all you want, but their music still resonates with a lot of people.
2. It's hard to dis someone when you don't fully understand their situation.
3. She's always quick to dis any movie that doesn't meet her high standards.
4. You can't just dis a person's hard work because you don't like their style.
5. In a world full of criticism, it's refreshing to find someone who chooses not to dis others.
6. Dis content can sometimes lead to misunderstandings in a conversation.
7. The artist felt the need to dis the critics who failed to appreciate her work.
8. It's important to address any dis harmony within a team to maintain productivity.
9. He decided to dis the negative comments and focus on the positive feedback instead.
10. During the debate, she managed to dis her opponent's arguments effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dis>