

DISABLEMENT

Meaning: Disablement refers to the condition or state of being rendered incapable of performing certain functions or activities, often due to an impairment or the removal of safety features.

1. The disablement of the safety features on the machine led to a serious accident.
2. His recent disablement has made it challenging for him to navigate public spaces.
3. After her disablement, she found new ways to adapt and thrive in her daily life.
4. The government has introduced policies to support individuals facing disablement.
5. Many organizations work tirelessly to raise awareness about the rights of people with disablement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disablement>