

DISACCOMMODATION

Meaning: Disaccommodation refers to the sudden removal or lack of lodging or accommodations for individuals, often due to unforeseen circumstances.

1. The sudden disaccommodation of the guests left the hotel staff scrambling for solutions.
2. After the unexpected disaccommodation due to the storm, many travelers found themselves without a safe place to stay.
3. Her disaccommodation from the group during the trip led to feelings of loneliness and isolation.
4. The disaccommodation of tenants during the renovations sparked protests in the neighborhood.
5. Despite the disaccommodation caused by the construction, the community rallied together to support those affected.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disaccommodation>