

DISACKNOWLEDGE

Meaning: Disacknowledge: to officially reject or disregard a previously accepted acknowledgment or recognition.

1. The committee decided to disacknowledge the previous findings due to new evidence.
2. In an unexpected twist, the judge chose to disacknowledge the defendant's alibi.
3. Despite the overwhelming support, the organization opted to disacknowledge the proposal for reform.
4. She felt it was necessary to disacknowledge the false claims made against her reputation.
5. The team was frustrated when the management chose to disacknowledge their hard work and achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disacknowledge>