

DISADORN

Meaning: Disadorn (verb): to remove or take away adornments or decorations from something.

1. The artist decided to disadorn the room of its elaborate decorations to create a minimalist aesthetic.
2. As the seasons changed, the trees began to disadorn themselves, shedding their vibrant leaves.
3. In her effort to simplify her life, she chose to disadorn her wardrobe, donating clothes she no longer wore.
4. The old castle was disadorned of its once-grand furnishings, leaving only bare stone walls behind.
5. He felt a sense of relief as he disadorned his desk, clearing away the clutter that had built up over time.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disadorn>