DISADVANTAGEOUS

Meaning: Disadvantageous: likely to cause harm or unfavorable conditions, particularly in a competitive or economic context.

1. The new policy proved to be disadvantageous for small businesses struggling to compete.
2. Choosing not to invest in advanced technology can be disadvantageous in today's fast-paced market.
3. Living in a remote area can be disadvantageous when it comes to accessing quality healthcare.
4. The team's decision to overlook market trends was ultimately disadvantageous for their strategy.
5. Inheriting a large sum of money can sometimes be disadvantageous due to the taxes involved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disadvantageous