

DISANNEX

Meaning: Disannex means to formally revoke the annexation of a territory or area, returning it to its previous status or ownership.

1. The government decided to disannex the previously contested territory after years of negotiations.
2. After much debate, the council voted to disannex the area that had been under dispute for decades.
3. Public sentiment shifted, leading to the decision to disannex the region and restore local governance.
4. In a surprising turn of events, the state legislature moved to disannex the land from the larger municipality.
5. The community rallied together, advocating to disannex their neighborhood from the city and gain autonomy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disannex>