

DISANNUL

Meaning: Disannul means to declare null and void or to cancel an agreement or decision.

1. The court decided to disannul the contract due to fraudulent misrepresentation.
2. After much deliberation, the committee voted to disannul the previous decision made last month.
3. She sought to disannul the marriage, claiming it was based on false pretenses.
4. The new evidence was sufficient to disannul the agreement they had reached earlier.
5. In an unexpected twist, the judge ruled to disannul the lease, citing legal technicalities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disannul>