

DISANNULMENT

Meaning: Disannulment refers to the act of declaring a contract or marriage null and void, effectively canceling its legal validity.

1. The disannulment of the contract left both parties confused about their obligations.
2. After lengthy discussions, she finally agreed to the disannulment of their marriage.
3. The court's decision on the disannulment was celebrated by the couple who wished to move on.
4. Disannulment can often involve complex legal proceedings that vary by jurisdiction.
5. They sought disannulment due to a misunderstanding that had arisen at the time of agreement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disannulment>