

DISAPPAREL

Meaning: Disapparel: the act of disappearing or vanishing suddenly.

1. The sudden disapparel of the magician's assistant left the audience in awe.
2. As the fog began to clear, the disapparel of the landscape revealed a breathtaking view.
3. In the story, the ancient artifact caused the disapparel of those who dared to possess it.
4. The artist's painting captured the disapparel of summer, as the leaves turned vibrant shades of orange and red.
5. After the storm, the disapparel of the clouds allowed the sun to shine brilliantly over the horizon.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disapparel>