

DISAPPOINT

Meaning: To feel sadness or dissatisfaction due to unfulfilled hopes or expectations.

1. The unexpected cancellation of the concert left many fans feeling disappointed.
2. She was disappointed to learn that her application had been rejected.
3. His lack of effort in the project ultimately disappointed his team members.
4. After months of anticipation, the movie turned out to be quite disappointing.
5. They didn't want to disappoint their parents by failing to meet their expectations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disappoint>