

DISARM

Meaning: To disarm means to remove suspicion or hostility, often by appealing to emotions or presenting persuasive arguments.

1. The politician aimed to disarm critics by presenting a comprehensive plan for reform.
2. During the tense negotiation, she managed to disarm the opposing side with her charm and empathy.
3. He tried to disarm the situation with a joke, hoping to ease the tension in the room.
4. To ensure safety, the security team was instructed to disarm any potential threats before the event began.
5. The magician's performance was captivating, as he seemed to disarm the audience's skepticism with each trick.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disarm>