

DISARMATURE

Meaning: Disarmature (verb): To remove weapons or military capabilities from individuals or groups to promote peace and safety.

1. The peace talks aimed to disarmature the conflicting parties and foster lasting harmony.
2. In an effort to promote safety, the government proposed a plan to disarmature illegal weapons across the region.
3. The organization worked tirelessly to disarmature militias, hoping to reduce violence in war-torn areas.
4. His speech focused on the need to disarmature nuclear arsenals to prevent potential global catastrophes.
5. Efforts to disarmature were met with resistance, as many feared losing their means of protection.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disarmature>