

DISARRANGEMENT

Meaning: Disarrangement refers to a state of disorder or disorganization, resulting in a chaotic or disrupted arrangement of items.

1. The sudden disarrangement of the furniture made the room feel chaotic.
2. She noticed a disarrangement of her carefully organized files on the desk.
3. His disarrangement of thoughts made it difficult for him to express his ideas clearly.
4. The storm caused a disarrangement of the outdoor decorations, scattering them across the yard.
5. Despite the disarrangement of her plans, she remained optimistic about the outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disarrangement>