

DISAVOUCH

Meaning: Disavouch means to deny or reject any association or responsibility for something.

1. She decided to disavouch any involvement in the scandal that had recently surfaced.
2. The witness chose to disavouch his previous statement after realizing it could lead to legal repercussions.
3. In his speech, he made it clear that he would disavouch any claims that contradicted his values.
4. The politician was forced to disavouch the controversial remarks made by his campaign manager.
5. To protect her reputation, she felt it necessary to disavouch the rumors circulating about her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disavouch>