

DISAVOWER

Meaning: Disavower: a person who denies or rejects a previous statement, belief, or association.

1. The politician became a disavower of his previous statements, claiming they were taken out of context.
2. She was labeled a disavower of traditional beliefs, advocating for a more progressive approach.
3. As a disavower of violence, he dedicated his life to promoting peace and understanding.
4. In the debate, he positioned himself as a disavower of the party's controversial policies.
5. The author was a disavower of the societal norms that constrained individual expression.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disavower>