

DISBARK

Meaning: Disbark means to leave or get off a ship or boat.

1. Passengers will disembark from the cruise ship once it reaches the dock.
2. As the ferry approached the terminal, everyone prepared to disembark.
3. The crew announced that it was time to disembark and explore the island.
4. After the long journey, the travelers eagerly disembarked and stretched their legs.
5. Before they could disembark, the captain reminded everyone to collect their belongings.
6. The passengers were eager to disembark the cruise ship as soon as it docked.
7. After a long journey at sea, the crew prepared to disembark all cargo and passengers.
8. It took a while for everyone to disembark, as some were still gathering their belongings.
9. Once the announcement was made, travelers began to disembark in an orderly fashion.
10. The captain instructed the travelers to remain seated until it was time to disembark.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disbark>