

DISBELIEVER

Meaning: A disbeliever is a person who refuses to accept or believe in a particular idea, concept, or belief, often despite evidence to the contrary.

1. The disbeliever scoffed at the idea of ghosts haunting the old mansion.
2. Despite overwhelming evidence, he remained a staunch disbeliever in climate change.
3. As a disbeliever in traditional medicine, she sought alternative treatments for her illness.
4. The disbeliever questioned the validity of the studies presented by the researchers.
5. Her role as a disbeliever in conspiracy theories often led to heated debates with friends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disbeliever>