DISBENCH

Meaning: Disbench (verb): To dismiss or remove a jury or panel from service in a legal proceeding.

1. The judge decided to disbench the jury after discovering a conflict of interest.
2. In an unusual move, the court chose to disbench the panel due to procedural errors.
3. Following a brief discussion, the attorneys requested to disbench the current witnesses.
4. To ensure a fair trial, it was necessary to disbench the original group of jurors.
5. The defense team filed a motion to disbench the expert witness on grounds of bias.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disbench