

DISBOSCATION

Meaning: Disboscation refers to the removal or clearing of trees and forested areas, resulting in significant changes to the landscape and environment.

1. The disboscation of the ancient forest led to widespread environmental concerns among the local community.
2. After the disboscation process, the landscape transformed dramatically, revealing previously hidden geological features.
3. Researchers studied the effects of disboscation on biodiversity, noting a significant decline in native species.
4. The rapid disboscation of the area sparked protests from environmental activists advocating for conservation.
5. In the wake of disboscation, efforts to restore the ecosystem became a priority for environmental organizations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disboscation>