

DISCAMP

Meaning: Discamps (verb): to break camp and leave a campsite, typically to relocate to another location.

1. They decided to discamp early in the morning to avoid the afternoon heat.
2. After a long day of hiking, we chose to discamp and set up our tents by the river.
3. The group was eager to discamp before the rain set in, packing their gear quickly.
4. To save time, they agreed to discamp at the designated spot rather than explore further.
5. As the sun began to set, the campers realized it was time to discamp and head back to their vehicles.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discamp>