

DISCEPTATOR

Meaning: Disceptator: a person who engages in debate or discussion, particularly one who is skilled in resolving conflicts and presenting persuasive arguments.

1. The disceptator presented compelling arguments during the debate, captivating the entire audience.
2. In ancient times, a disceptator was often revered for their wisdom and ability to resolve conflicts.
3. During the annual conference, the disceptator facilitated discussions that led to a breakthrough in understanding.
4. Her role as a disceptator was crucial in mediating the differing perspectives within the committee.
5. The disceptator's analysis of the controversial topic helped clarify the various viewpoints for all participants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disceptator>