

DISCERN

Meaning: To discern means to perceive or recognize something, especially with careful observation or insight.

1. It can be difficult to discern the truth when so many conflicting stories are presented.
2. As an experienced detective, she was able to discern subtle clues that others overlooked.
3. The artist's use of color allows viewers to discern deeper emotions within the painting.
4. In meditation, one learns to discern between fleeting thoughts and a peaceful mind.
5. Scientists strive to discern patterns in the data that may indicate a larger trend.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discern>