

DISCERNIBLE

Meaning: Discernible: capable of being perceived or recognized, often with difficulty.

1. The difference between the two paintings was barely discernible to the casual observer.
2. As the fog began to lift, the outlines of the mountains became more discernible against the sky.
3. She spoke in a whisper, but her excitement was discernible in the tone of her voice.
4. His intentions were not entirely discernible, leaving everyone around him feeling uneasy.
5. Through the dense foliage, a path became discernible, suggesting that someone had walked this way before.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discernible>