

DISCERNIBLENES

Meaning: Discernibleness refers to the quality of being easily perceived or recognized, particularly in relation to emotions or arguments.

1. The discernibleness of her emotions made it easy for friends to offer support.
2. In philosophy, the discernibleness of an argument can determine its validity.
3. The artist's use of color added a discernibleness to the patterns that captivated viewers.
4. Scientists strive for discernibleness in their data to draw accurate conclusions.
5. The discernibleness of the differences in dialects fascinated the linguists present at the conference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discernibleness>