

DISCERP

Meaning: Discern: to perceive or recognize something clearly, especially by distinguishing subtle differences or details.

1. She was able to discern the subtle differences in the art styles displayed in the gallery.
2. In the dim light of the room, he could discern shapes moving in the shadows.
3. The detective needed to discern the truth amidst the many lies told by the witnesses.
4. As the clouds parted, they could finally discern the mountain peak in the distance.
5. Through careful analysis, the researchers were able to discern a pattern in the data.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discerp>