

DISCERPTION

Meaning: 'DISCERPTION' refers to the ability to make careful distinctions or judgments, particularly in assessing differences or handling sensitive matters.

1. The discernment between the two candidates was evident in their public speaking skills.
2. He exercised caution and good discernment when handling sensitive information.
3. The teacher praised the student's discernment in selecting relevant sources for the research paper.
4. In matters of personal finance, exercising discernment is crucial to avoid unnecessary expenses.
5. Her discernment in choosing friends has led to a supportive and positive social circle.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discerption>