

DISCESSION

Meaning: Discession refers to a disagreement or division of opinions among individuals or groups.

1. The discession between their viewpoints led to a heated debate that lasted well into the night.
2. In the midst of a discession among the team members, it was clear that communication was key to finding a resolution.
3. Historical records often highlight the discession within the political party that ultimately shaped its future direction.
4. The discession over the project's budget caused several members to rethink their commitments to the team.
5. Faced with discession in the ranks, the leader sought to unify the group under a common purpose.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discussion>