

DISCHARGE

Meaning: Discharge refers to the act of releasing or allowing someone or something to leave, as in releasing a patient from medical care or the release of substances into the environment.

1. The hospital decided to discharge the patient after his condition improved significantly.
2. The environmental agency monitored the river for any signs of chemical discharge from the nearby factory.
3. After completing his community service, he received a formal discharge from his probation.
4. The battery began to discharge its energy after being disconnected from the charger.
5. The company faced fines for failing to properly manage the discharge of pollutants into the air.
6. The doctor decided to discharge the patient after confirming their full recovery.
7. The factory was fined for failing to properly manage the discharge of toxic waste into the river.
8. After completing the training, the cadets received their official discharge papers from the military.
9. The emotional discharge she felt during the therapy session was both overwhelming and cathartic.
10. The battery will discharge its energy gradually until it is completely depleted.
11. The doctor decided to discharge the patient after confirming their recovery.
12. The storm caused the discharge of large amounts of water from the reservoir.
13. After reviewing the evidence, the court ordered the discharge of the defendant from custody.
14. The factory must adhere to strict regulations regarding the discharge of pollutants into the river.
15. As part of the training, the cadets were required to practice safely discharging their weapons.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/discharge>