

DISCIPLINARIAN

Meaning: A disciplinarian is a person who enforces rules and maintains order, often with a strict approach to discipline and behavior.

1. The strict disciplinarian enforced the school's rules with unwavering determination.
2. As a disciplinarian, she believed in the importance of structure and consistency in the classroom.
3. His reputation as a tough disciplinarian often intimidated students, but they respected him for it.
4. The coach was a disciplinarian who pushed his athletes to their limits to achieve greatness.
5. In her role as a disciplinarian, she ensured that every student understood the consequences of their actions.
6. The disciplinarian at the school enforced strict rules to ensure that students learned the importance of responsibility.
7. Despite her gentle demeanor, she was known to be a strict disciplinarian who demanded respect from her students.
8. The coach adopted a disciplinarian approach, believing that structure and order were essential for team success.
9. As a disciplinarian, he often faced resistance from students but remained committed to their growth and development.
10. Her reputation as a disciplinarian was well-known, earning her both admiration and apprehension from the student body.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disciplinarian>