

DISCLAME

Meaning: To disclaim means to deny any responsibility for or connection to something.

1. I had to disclaim any responsibility for the errors in the report.
2. The lawyer advised her to disclaim any knowledge of the incident to avoid complications.
3. Before signing the contract, he decided to disclaim any previous agreements.
4. She chose to disclaim her involvement in the project to focus on her other commitments.
5. The organization issued a statement to disclaim any association with the controversial group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disclame>